CROWN MELBOURNE ROLLS OUT LUCKY TIE BACCARAT JACKPOT ACROSS 22 TABLES

Gaming Entertainment Systems (GES) announced a significant trial of its new Lucky Tie (pat.pending) house funded Baccarat Progressive Jackpot across 22 tables at Crown Melbourne. The unique game concept rewards players with the chance to win a jackpot when placing a tie wager.

Simon Witty, Director of Tables Games for Paltronics Australasia, GES' exclusive Australian distributor commented: "We have worked very closely with Crown's project team to test this innovative new jackpot for Baccarat. The GES system has been successfully used in Crown's Poker Room for over 18 months and now is extended to Baccarat to provide the Lucky Tie Progressive Jackpot."

Tim Barnett, Crown Melbourne's General Manager Table Games Strategy & Commercial commented:- "This extensive trial follows a successful 4-month pilot test where the game concept has proven popular with players without impacting on game procedures and dealer operation."

"Crown is always looking for innovative ways to complement its product offer and provide experiences that customers value. Lucky Tie offers our players a unique Jackpot opportunity that rewards specific gameplay and provides a more exciting experience," added Sean Knights, Executive General Manager Table Games at Crown Melbourne.
